

This week's competition is a 'Black Lives Matter' challenge!

George Floyd, an unarmed black man, died after being arrested in the American state of Minnesota last week.

The incident was captured on video and shows a police officer kneeling on George Floyd's neck for 8 minutes.

We would like you to send in a photo of you (and your family) kneeling in support of George Floyd - YOU WILL GET A HOUSE POINT FOR SENDING IN A PHOTO.

Which house will give the most support to 'Black Lives Matter'?

Marcus Rashford sent out a powerful anti-racism message: "I know you guys haven't heard from me in a few days," he said. "I've been trying to process what is going on in the world.

"At a time I've been asking people to come together, work together and be united, we appear to be more divided than ever. People are hurting and people need answers.

"Black lives matter. Black culture matters. Black communities matter. We matter."

Below is a link to Martin Luther King's famous 'I have a dream speech'

Can you create your own speech, either written or in a video to give your feelings on racism?

Send in your photo (and speech if you choose to do one) to your House Participation Leader. The competition closes on Monday 8th June

All the (kneeling) photos sent in will be put together to create a collage for the website!
