

September

SWA GEOGRAPHY NEWSLETTER

'Once the internet removes Geography as a constraint, the smartest people can go to the most beautiful places' - Greg Gianforte

WHAT ARE WE LEARNING?

7

Continents and Ocean - Understanding how important oceans are to the world

8

Understanding how the world formed into the series of continents that we see today through plate tectonics

9

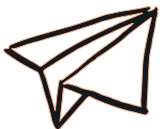

Looking at historic trade routes to view the importance of resources

10

Causes of climate change and the evidence that proves it exists

11

Living in Hot Deserts

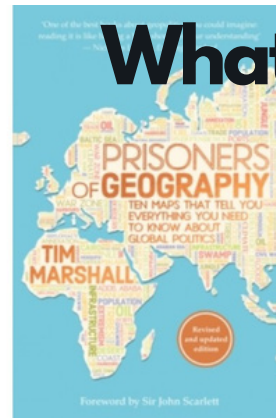

Journalist

CAREER PICK

Journalists work in TV, radio and print reporting on the world's most interesting stories. Geography provides you with key skills that will allow you to become an excellent journalist:

- Ethics and Integrity
- Expert communication skills
- Social skills
- Investigative skills

What to Read

REVISION TIP

Start your revision early!

In the News

Rishi Sunak has announced the delay in banning petrol and diesel cars completely from 2030 which will decrease our ability to reach net zero carbon emissions.

What to Watch

RESPECT, RESILIENCE, AMBITION